FRANCISCAN SUNDAY: On this Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, we lift our hearts in gratitude for the many priests, brothers and the good work of the Secular Franciscan Order fraternity that has graced our community over the years. The spirit of St. Francis' simplicity, respect of creation and preference for the poor is alive and flourishing in our community and we honor all the fruits of their labor for the love of Christ. Like St. Francis, may we all be collaborators in rebuilding God's Church!

GETTING TO KNOW ST. FRANCIS: Like a true and obedient man, Br. Maseo twirled round there so long that from the giddiness of head which such turning brings on, he kept falling down. But since the saint did not tell him to stop, he obediently got up and resumed his turning. Then St. Francis said: "In which direction is your face turned? He replied: "To Sienna". The saint said: "That is the way God wishes us to go." Br. Maseo was very amazed at the childish things he had made him do, twirling thus before many who passed by, but for reverence' sake, he did not dare to say anything to the holy father. But when they drew near to Sienna and the city people knew about the holy father's arrival, they came out to meet him and carried both of them to the bishop's house, so that they hardly put foot to the ground the whole way. To be continued...

WORLD MISSION

This year, World Mission Sunday is on October 18, 2020. This is a world-wide celebration of and collection for the missionary Church. The funds raised will go to emergency aid when disasters strike, to care for refugees in war torn nations, to establish and support rural health clinics, and to provide for the daily needs of all missionaries. Please pray for the missions often and please be generous on World Mission Sunday.

"By name I have called you; you are mine." (Isaiah 43:1)
The OLPH community welcomes with great joy Robert Job Watson, who made his Profession of Faith Saturday, September 26th.
We rejoice as he is welcomed to the Table of the Lord for his First Holy Communion this weekend
Thanks be to God for his summons, and for Robert's response!
