A special commemoration celebration for all the faithful departed who died of COVID-19.

Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Noel Simard, Diocese of Valleyfield, Saint-Cecile Basilica-Cathedrale on Monday, November 2, 2020 at 4:30pm

This is an opportunity to entrust to the Lord all those who have left us during this COVID-19 pandemic and also to pray for all the families who are grieving in these difficult times. We need to renew our faith which constantly tells us that life is stronger than anything even death. Hope gives us a glimpse of the eternity of the happiness that God reserves for his children.

Thank you to the grandparents, parents, Godparents and catechists who accompanied these children through your love, prayers and good example along the way of their faith journey. May God's blessing be upon you!

THANK YOU TO THE MEMORIAL BEQUEST FUND for gifting the First Communicants with the beautiful Prayer of the Rosary. October is dedicated to our Blessed Mother, and we thank you for approving this initiative to provide these children the opportunity to pray the rosary with their families!
