PARISH BULLETIN
EASTER & DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

May the blessings of the Easter Season fill your hearts and homes with the gifts of joy, peace, and love. Your Pastoral staff.

EASTER REFLECTION

Alleluia. Christ is risen! The Lord is risen indeed.

And so, we begin this glorious day of Resurrection. It is fitting to reflect on the very moment when Jesus 'sees' Mary in the garden. As Bishop Ware once said, 'To address someone by name is to render that person present.' In the despair of grief, Mary encounters Jesus: she recognizes him, and she is recognized. Emboldened by love, she goes back to the place of death and in the fresh trauma of its emptiness, she encounters the risen Christ.

We, like Mary, long to be known, to be seen. As we begin this season of Resurrection, may we offer our full selves to the risen Christ. Like Mary, perhaps when we weep and stoop and look into the painful places in our lives, we too will find angels.

WARDEN'S MEETING

This Wednesday the Warden's meeting will be held in the Church Hall at 7pm. All are welcome. Please note that participation is limited to listening.

DIVINE MERCY REFLECTION

John 20:28 Thomas answered, 'My Lord and my God.'

O Thomas, you have been maligned for your doubt for two thousand years, offered as an example of failure and unfaithfulness. But you were the brave one. You were the one willing to be vulnerable and transparent, willing to risk being truly seen. We are not all truth tellers like you were.

Your ecstatic response when you knew that Jesus stood before you was a kind of resurrection of hope, faith, and possibility. It was an encounter that changed your life – and ours – by showing us that our journeys also run on a continuum between doubt and faith, skepticism and belief.

As we journey through Easter, I pray we might be reshaped by your experience and practice witnessing resurrections and all the possibilities Easter holds for us. May we go out this day to share the message of the Risen Christ with your enthusiasm, with the words 'My Lord and my God!' on the tips of our tongues, and may doubt become a necessary approach to full understanding.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

On Sunday April 27 at 3pm, Deacon Nic will be celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday. All are welcome.
