REFLECTIONS ON

THE WAY OF THE CROSS

Is it over... or just beginning?
“Station 14” Jesus Is Laid in the Tomb
All is quiet now, Lord Jesus, and I welcome the peace found here in the darkness of the tomb. I wait, in joyful hope. But even before catching a glimpse of that saving light, I am grateful for the solitude of this moment.
You are here, in the silence, eager to keep watch with me. Lord help me when worldly pains and cares distract me. Bring my heart back to yours.

Prayer: Loving Lord, help me to follow your example in taking time to pray.
Give me the grace to discern your Father's ways in every situation and to pray, with you, “Your will be done.”
Amen

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Helping a person in need is good in itself. But the degree of goodness is hugely affected by the attitude with which it is done. – St John Chrysostom
